There are two main categories under the EB-3 visa:

- Skilled Workers: These jobs usually require at least two years of work experience or training.
- Unskilled Workers: These jobs typically require little to no formal training or experience.

Finding an EB-3 Visa Sponsorship

The good news is that many employers in the USA are looking for workers! This means there are opportunities for both skilled and unskilled workers to find EB-3 visa sponsorship.

Here's the catch: To sponsor you for the EB-3 visa, the employer needs to prove they couldn't find a qualified American worker for the job. This process can take time.

Here are some tips for finding EB-3 visa sponsorship:

- Research in-demand jobs: Look for jobs in fields where there are labor shortages.
- Focus on your skills and experience: Even for unskilled jobs, highlight any transferable skills you have.
- Network with American companies: Attending industry events or contacting companies directly can help.

Examples of EB-3 Visa Jobs (Skilled)

- Construction workers (carpenters, electricians)
- Nurses and medical technicians
- Mechanics

Examples of EB-3 Visa Jobs (Unskilled)

- Farmworkers
- Hotel and restaurant staff
- Janitorial staff

Remember: This is not an exhaustive list. There are many other skilled and unskilled jobs that may qualify for EB-3 sponsorship.

Important next steps

- Research the EB-3 visa application process.
- Look for jobs in the USA that offer sponsorship.
- Get your resume and cover letter in tip-top shape!

Good luck with your job search!
